

We Will Dance
Lyrics and Music by David Ruis

Verse 1:

D
Sing a song of celebration, lift up a shout of praise,

                                  G2                                  D
for the bridegroom will come, the glorious one,

          C2 G2                                  D
and oh, we will look on His face.

          C2 G2                                  D
We'll go to a much better place.

Verse 2:

D
Dance with all your might, lift up you hands and clap for joy.

                                  G2                                  D
The time's drawing near when He will appear,

          C2 G2                                  D
and oh, we will stand by His side,

          C2          G2                                  Asus  A
a strong, pure, spotless bride. (Oh)

Chorus:

D          C                                  G                                  D
We will dance on the streets that are golden,

                                  C                                  G                                  D
the glorious bride and the great Son of Man.

                                  C                                  G                                  D
From every tongue and tribe and nation

          C          G                                  D
will join in the song of the Lamb.

(Repeat from Beginning)

Bridge 1:

D
Sing aloud for the time of rejoicing is near.

D
The risen King, our Groom, is soon to appear.

D
The wedding feast to come is now near at hand.

D
Lift up your voice, proclaim the coming Lamb.

Bridge 2:

G2/B C2-6 D

(Repeat two times)

Bridge 3:

D (Repeat for four measures)

D            C                    G                    D
We will dance on the streets that are golden.

(Repeat Bridge 3 three times)

(Repeat Chorus)
